River City Logistics Incorporated Honored as NCET's Logistics Company of the Year
at NCET Tech Awards

RENO, Nevada (March 9, 2022) — NCET, Nevada's Center for Entrepreneurship and Technology, announced River City Logistics Incorporated \(RCL\) as the 2022 Logistics Company of the Year. The award recognizes the 3PL (third-party logistics & transportation) firm which realized the greatest rate of increase in revenue growth; demonstrated excellence in employment and recruiting principles; made significant contributions to the northern Nevada community; and which continued a commitment to hire, train and advance staff who hail from a diverse work/life/experience spectrum.

In 2021, RCL:

- Increased revenues by 256% YOY
- Retained and recruited a diverse workplace which included 15% female employees (versus industry average of 2%)
- Donated to a local Title I public school so that 50 5th grade students can attend summer camp at Lake Tahoe
- Committed to sponsor the Barracuda Championship and the John Deere Classic 2022 PGA TOUR events which, combined, support more than 500 local charities in their respective markets
- Doubled their staff size.

Now in its 15th year, the NCET Technology Awards celebrate the Northern Nevada individuals and companies who have greatly enhanced the growth and prestige of the technology community, while the EDAWN Awards recognize the people and resources that have played an integral part in contributing to the growth of our community. The NCET Technology Awards along with the EDAWN Awards will be held on April 7, 2022, at 5 p.m. PST in the Mt. Rose Ballroom of the Reno-Sparks Convention Center. Tickets and more information are available at www.NCETawards.org
